2. Attendance at all scheduled rehearsals is expected, except in the case of an emergency.
3. No one may be backstage with the contestants during the pageant. Only staff and assigned volunteers will be allowed behind stage and in the dressing areas.
4. The pageant committee will determine if clothing and talent portions are appropriate and consistent with the integrity and dignity of the pageant.
5. Talent is limited to three minutes per contestant. Talent does not have to be limited to traditional forms of talent. Past contestants have told stories, read poems, painted, talked about a hobby, and more.
6. Only the contestant and her props are allowed on stage during the talent portion. No one will be allowed to assist or accompany the contestant on stage unless contestant is physically impaired.
7. All music intended for the talent portion must be provided by the contestant on a CD. Live musical accompaniment is allowed. One musical accompaniment, also playing an instrument, is allowed.
8. Any props needed for the talent portion must be approved by RSAA and provided by the contestant.

The pageant committee holds the right to disqualify any contestant as deemed necessary. Contestants are expected to uphold their roles with respect, honor, grace, integrity, and dignity.
